

108 Names of Baba Lokenath With Translation in English

The Name and the Form of the Divine are one and the same. The Name is the Sound Form of God. Repetition of the Name of the Lord or the Guru or Master has always been considered by all religious traditions of the world as the surest way to reach God. There are spiritual seekers and Masters who continually mumble the Divine Name and you can see the movement of their lips while their hearts chant the Divine Name incessantly.

Shuddhaanandaa Brahmachari (Babaji) has always talked about the efficacy of the repetition of the divine Name or Japa as the most time tested path to Self Realization, reconfirming the most authentic pronouncements of the great Sages and Saints of the world. He says, “Those who can cry in the Name of the Master they are freed from all the bondages of the Past and Future. No worry can torture them; no loss can make them poor. No tension can tear them apart. No fangs of ego can damage their heart's love for the Master and they are Calm in heart, quiet in mind, and universal in their Breath. Blessed are you to tread that path of devotional surrender, the MOST difficult yet the easiest and assured Path to the ABODE of eternal FREEDOM. Freedom from birth and death and that which creates it, the ego.

Come, Chant the Divine Name of Baba Lokenath with Bhav or positive emotion and make it a regular practice before you go to sleep or at any time you feel you can drown yourself in the Nectar of Divine Name.
